RAIDS ON OFFICES OF BIG CONCERNS

Postoffice Inspectors Arrest Officers of Burr Bros., and Wireless Co.

ALLEGE PUBLIC WAS FLEECED

Postmaster General Hitchcock Directed the Raids—Swindle Said to Involve Forty Millions—Warfare.

New York, Nov. 21.—In raids so important that Postmaster General Hitchcock took charge in person, his inspectors fell on two concerns this afternoon which they charge with swindling the public out of more than $40,000,000 by fradulent use of the mails.

Sheldon H. Burr, president of Burr Brothers; Eugene H. Burr, secretary and treasurer of the firm, and Frank H. Tobey, its vice president, were arested in the first raid and held in $20,000 bail each. The government charges that the firm sold between $40,000,000 and $50,000,000 of mining and oil stock worth little or nothing.

Charles L. Vaughan, a director of the Continental Wireless Telegraph and Telephone Company, incorporated in Arizona, was taken in the second raid and held in $10,000 bail. Inspectors say his company has sold stock to the amount of at least $1,000,000, which has brought in no return to the investors. Vaughan is treasurer of the Columbia Finance Company, which acts as fiscal agent for the Continental Wireless Telegraph and Telephone Company and had charge of the Continental offices in the city. Both raids today are further evidence that the government in its warfare against alleged interstate swindlers means business and no longer will be content with issuing fraud orders denying them the use of the mails, but will press for convictions on criminal charges.

Crusade Continues.

The present campaign began some months ago and has resulted in the arrest of Louis Cella, and his associates, charged with operating a string of bucketshops; the officers of the United Wireless Company, the El Progresso Banana Company, the United Exchange, of Chicago; the Steele Miller Cotton firm, of Corinth, Miss., and more than sixty other firms in all parts of the country.

Postmaster General Hitchcock estimates that the public has been fleeced out of at least $100,000,000 by the get-rich-quick concerns in the last five years, but says their hayday has gone. The Postoffice Department intends to keep after them every minute and Mr. Hitchcock said today that other arrests, involving corporations that have sought investors the length and breadth of the country, are expected shortly.

Hitchcock's Statement.

His statement follows:

"The arest today by Postoffice Inspectors of the principals in two important companies, Burr Brothers with offices in the Flat Iron building, and the Continental Wireless Company, with headquarters at 56 Pine street, constitute two more cases in the series of investigations that the postal authorities have been making in their crusade against the fraudulent use of the United States mails. With the work accomplished today 78 such cases have been brought to a head during the year. It is estimated that the swindling operations of these 78 cases have filched from the American people in a period of five years over $100,000,000.

"The crusade now in progress is a result of a carefully laid plan of some months ago, the first step in which was a thorough re-organization of the inspection service with the selection of a new chief postoffice inspector and certain changes and reorganization was effected, instructions were issued to the newly assigned inspector in charge to take up and prosecute vigorously all pending cases of fraud against the mails. Owing to the extent of these cases and the large amount of work involved it was necessary to detail a considerable portion of the force of postoffice inspectors. The best men in the srevice were selected for this work and were sent to their tasks with the assurance that the department at Washington would back them up to the fullest extent. In order to strike at the root of this evil the department directed its agents to go after the men higher up in these gigantic schemes to defraud and to allow no influence, however powerful, to prevent the proper punishment of the offenders. Through the assistance of the attorney general the full co-operation of his department was secured in the successful carrying out of this crusade. As the work of this investigation proceeded it became apparent that the fraudulent use of the mails was far more extensive than had been realized by the department. A vast system of fraud as far reaching in its ramifications as the postal ser-

MEXICAN TROUBLE BECOMES SERIOUS

Rebels Gaining Ground and Government Now Fears an Early Conflict.

U. S. TROOPS TO THE BORDER

Disorder in Many of the Smaller Places Throughout Yesterday.—Situation as Viewed in Texas.—Madero The Leader.

Laredo, Texas, Nov. 21.—The situation in Mexico appears to be serious tonight. For the first time in the 15 years of operation the leased wires of the Associatied Press from Laredo and Monterey and Mexico City were commandeered by the Mexican government on the plea of military need.

The Federal telegraph circuit manager in Nuevo Laredo was ordered to cut off the Laredo office of the Associated Press to prevent the gleaning of information from messages moving over the wire. These instructions emanated from the headquarters of the Federal telegraphs in Mexico City wherein it was explained that the government would require the full capacity of all its telegraph facilities throughout the night.

Coming as it does after what was only reported to have been a perfectly tranquil Sunday throughout the greater part of Mexico, broken only by a few almost insignificant disorders in the smaller places, this action on the part of the government would appear to lend substance to the rumors of bloody riots at Zacatecas, Gomez Palacios and Torren, the authenticity of which had been in doubt.

These three important cities are situated in a region which has been disaffected for years. Gomez, Palacios and Torron are cities of about 15,000 and 25,000, respectively, and are four miles apart in the Laguna district of Coahuila.

This territory was the scene of the insurrection of 1908, which was quickly quelled by the Federal government and which is supposed to have resulted in sending General Bernardo Reyes out of Mexico. General Reyes at that time was governor of the contiguous state of Nuevo Leon. The revolutionists proclaimed him as their leader.

Repeated disavowals on his part did not seem to convince the central government that he was not covertly abetting the disaffection. He was dispatched to Europe, ostensibly on a military mission and he has not yet returned.

Almost at once the same element that had recognized Reyes as their standard bearer, turned to Francisco I. Madero and nominated him for president of the republic in opposition to the incumbent, President Diaz in the elections held last spring.

Madero and his supporters, said that they were not accorded fair treatment in the campaign. Madero was imprisoned on the charge of insulting the government by his statement that he could not get justice in the courts. He was held in prison until several weeks after election day, when the existing government was overwhelmingly returned to power. After that he was released on bail.

Madero made his way to San Antonio, Texas, disguised as a peon. At San Antonio, he is alleged to have been secretly preparing his partisans for the widespread revolt which was planned to begin on Sunday, November 20th. On November 18th Madero slipped out of San Antonio, made his way on a train to Cotulla, Texas, where he was met by four companions with horses and a guide. Then he departed in a westerly direction. It was then said that he was going to the family estate in Coahuila to take command of the anti-government forces in the field. No further word has been obtainable regarding his movement, and it is believed he is in Mexico tonight.

Every precaution is taken by American officers to prevent violation of neutrality laws on United States soil. Governor Campbell, of Texas, is reported to have ordered the entire force of Texas rangers to the Rio Grande. The commanding officer of Fort McIntosh has placed a double guard over the gun racks in each barrack of the four companies of infantry stationed here, as a precaution against the forced seizure by Mexican revolutionists.

Austin, Texas, Nov. 21.—Governor Campbell today ordered Captain J. H. Rogers and three rangers, all who are available here to go in haste to Zapata county. The men were sent on receipt of a telegram from District Attorney Ellis to the effect that he had been advised by a Mexican general that an armed force of Mexicans was organizing there.

This was all the information they received. Zapata county is on the southwestern border just below Webb county, of which Laredo is the county seat.

News at War Department.

Washington, Nov. 21.—Brigadier General Ralph W. Hoyt, commander of the Department of Texas, notified the War Department tonight that he had ordered trook K. of the Third United States cavalry to Del Rio on the Mexican border.

Earlier in the day, General Hoyt, after having been instructed by the War Department to hold troops in readiness to protect American inter-

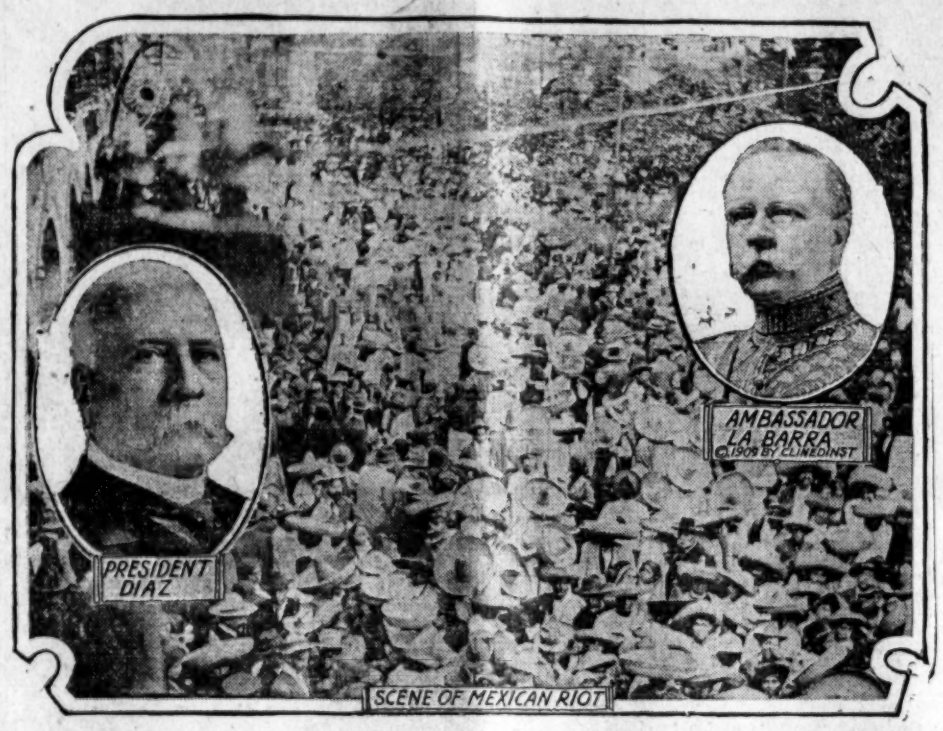
Situation on Mexican Border Grows Acute, Soldiers Dispatched



Press dispatches this morning indicate that the trouble on the Mexican border has become acute and the United States has dispatched troops from San Antonio to preserve the neutrality agreement. The large picture above shows a recent riot in Guadalajara when the Methodist school for girls, the Commercial Bank and an American newspaper office were attacked, while the smaller pictures are those of President Diaz, of Mexico, against whose government there is revolt, and Ambassador La Barra, representing Diaz at Washington.

URGING PEACE IN PARLIAMENT

Lord Lansdowne Will Introduce Resolutions Suggesting Manner to Deal With Deadlock—Veto Bill Taken Up Again.

London, Nov. 21.—The House of Lords today began an apparently fruitless discussion of the veto bill in the second reading stage, the Earl of Crewe introducing the measure before a crowded house. The government leader reviewed the controversy between the two houses, which began with the rejection by the upper chamber of the government's educational bill in 1906 and reached an acute state when the lords threw out the budget in 1909.

He said that the veto bill constituted a request by the government that the country restore a reasonable measure of freedom to its chosen representatives.

Lord Lansdowne criticised the bill, but said that it contained points that might have formed the basis of a useful discussion.

Lord Lansdowne moved an adjournment until Wednesday, at which time, he said, he would introduce resolutions suggesting a manner in which the deadlock of the two houses might be dealt with. The motion was adopted without division.

The resolutions which Lord Lansdowne gave notice that he would introduce on Wednesday follow:

"It is desirable that provisions be made for settling differences that may arise between the House of Commons and this house as re-constituted, reduced in numbers in accordance to the recent resolutions of the House.

"That as to bills other than money bills such provisions should be made on the following lines:

"If a difference arises between the houses in regard to any bill other than a money bill in two successive sessions and during an interval of not less than one year, and such differences are unable to be adjusted by other means, it shall be settled at a joint sitting composed of the members of the two houses, provided, that if the measure relates to a matter of great gravity and has not been adequately submitted to the judgment of the people, it shall not be referred to a joint sitting, but submitted for decision to the electors by a referendum.

"That as to money bills the provision should be on the following lines:

"The lords are prepared to forego their constitutional right to reject and amend money bills which are of a purely financial character, provided effectual provision is made against 'tacking'; and provided, that if any question arises as to whether a bill or any of the provisions thereof are of a purely financial character, that question shall be referred to a joint committee of both houses with the speaker of the House of Commons as chairman and who shall have a casting vote only. If the committee holds that the bill or the provisions in question are not of a financial character they shall be dealt with forthwith at a joint sitting of the Houses."

Philadelphia, Nov. 21.—Jack O'Brien, who was one of the catchers of the Athletic Baseball Team when it won the championship of the American Association in 1883, died yesterday in a hospital in this city and will be buried from the Elks' home on Wednesday. After playing as a battery partner of the famous "Bobby" Matthews, pitching star of 1883, O'Brien played with Brooklyn, Baltimore and other clubs.

KANSAS EDITOR MUST SERVE

Court of Appeals Affirms Six Months Sentence Imposed by United States Court—Caused by Attack of Ex-Gov. Taylor.

St. Paul, Minn., Nov. 21.—F. D. Warren, of Girard, Kas., editor of a paper "Appeal to Reason," must serve a term of six months in the Federal prison at Leavenworth, Kas., and pay a fine of $1,000 imposed by a jury in the United States court in Kansas. The sentence of that court was affirmed by an order of the United States Circuit Court of Appeals filed today.

Warren was accused of sending through the mail envelopes on the outside of which was printed "$1,000 reward will be paid to the Kentucky authorities." The indictment charged that the words were defamatory and threatening and intended to reflect injuriously on the character of William S. Taylor, a former governor of Kentucky.

Fort Scott, Kas., Nov. 21.—When F. D. Waren, editor of "The Appeal to Reason," of Girard, Kas., was notified today of the decision of the United States Court of Appeals that he must serve a jail sentence and pay a fine of $1,000, he replied through his attorney that he would appeal to the United States Supreme Court.

THE WESTERN METHODISTS

Conference Adjourned Yesterday at Winston-Salem With Reading of Appointments—Services Sunday in Churches.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Winston-Salem, N. C., Nov. 21.—The Western North Carolina Conference adjourned today at noon with the reading of the appointments for next year. A strong report on temperance was adopted and a resolution against increasing the Conference assessment was offered.

The Board of Missions recommended assessments of $21,000 for foreign missions and the same amount for domestic missions this year. H. K. Boyer was elected conference missionary secretary, and J. H. West, president of the Board of Missions. M. H. Vestal was appointed presiding elder of the new North Wilkesboro district. There were no other changes of presiding elders except J. A. Scroggs to the Charlotte district and S. B. Turrentine to the Shelby district. C. W. Byrd is sent to Central Church, Asheville; J. E. Thompson to Mooresville; J. H. Barnhardt to High Point; Parker Holmes to Salisbury; J. H. Weaver to Monroe and L. T. Mann to Hickory. Other leading appointments are the same as last year.

Large congregations attended all the services held in the conference church, Centenary, and in the other churches here Sunday. Most of the pulpits of the city were filled with members of the conference.

The conference "Love Feast" was held Sunday morning, beginning at 9:30 o'clock. The ministers who conducted this service were Rev. J. W. Wheeler, one of the oldest preachers in the conference, now residing in Charlotte, and Rev. R. M. Hoyle, presiding elder of the Morganton district. Most of the time of this service was occupied with the exchange of Christian experience, the meeting partaking much of the character of the experience meetings which occupied a prominent part in the services of the Methodist church in its early days.

The sermon of Bishop Hendrix at 11 o'clock was heard by a congregation which occupied every available space in the large auditorium of Centenary church. From every point of view the sermon was one of the greatest earnestness and the most convincing power. The theme of the sermon was "The Satisfied Christ," and the text upon which it was based is a part of the 11th verse of the 53rd chapter of Isaiah. "And he shall see of the travail of his soul, and shall be satisfied."

Bishop Hendrix is one of the most scholarly men, and one of the ablest men in the episcopacy of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, and he was at his best in his sermon today. Not only was his presentation scholarly and able, but it was deeply spiritual, and the force with which he brought his own heart into the sermon was one of its most impressive features. It was easy to see that the message which he presented to others came from his own heart-felt experience.

Immediately after the sermon, Bishop Hendrix ordained eight traveling preachers and one local preacher as deacons.

The memorial service was held in the afternoon. Memoirs were read at this time of the four preachers who have died during the past year—Rev.

THE SOUTHBOUND IS NOW COMPLETE

Last Spike Driven Sunday Evening Just South of Wadesboro, N. C.

THE FIRST TRAIN ON FRIDAY

Second Only in Model Construction to C. C. & O.—Officials and Invited Guests to Leave on an Inspection—Country.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Wadesboro, N. C., Nov. 21.—The Winston-Salem Southbound Railroad—the dream of the years is completed. The rail is in place and the last spike driven and forces of men are at work getting everything in readiness for the first train—an inspection train—which will run over the line, leaving Wadesboro Friday morning and will reach Winston-Salem that evening.

The last spike was driven Sunday evening at 6 o'clock south of Wadesboro, where the new line connects with the Atlantic Coast Line at Willoughby trestle. Quite a number of citizens were present and Mr. George W. Huntley, president of the Wadesboro Wide-Awake Club and one of the directors of the Winston-Salem Southbound when first organized, placed the spike and it was driven by Colonel A. F. Cornell and Mr. L. D. Robinson, president of the Bank of Wadesboro.

From the beginning of the agitation for the new line several years ago Mr. Huntley has been an ardent supporter and worked unceasingly for the right of way and was chosen by Col. Cornell to place the spike on account of his interest in the new road. After the arrangement by which the Norfolk & Western and the Atlantic Coast Line were to build the road a new directorate was selected representing those interests and Mr. Huntley is not now diretor.

The new line starts from Wadesboro, a hustling town of 4,000 people, and well located, as the initial point for a new road. Here with a splendid back country, well developed, producing cotton, corn and other grain, is one of the most prosperous communities of the Piedmont territory. Wadesboro now has two silk mills, a cotton factory, furniture factory, three banks and several jobbing houses in addition to a number of other smaller enterprises. Blewitt Falls hydro-electric plant which is to develop 30,000 horse-power, is only 12 miles away.

Here at Wadesboro the new line connects with the Atlantic Coast Line and this opens up a new trunk line to the coast, reaching Charleston. The Atlantic Coast Line has placed 90-pound rail on its entire line from Wadesboro to Florence and has practically rebuilt the entire line, putting in new bridges and making a new grade.

Starting north from Wadesboro the Southbound comes first to Ansonville, heretofore undeveloped, although it is an old town, once the seat of Carolina College, a famous institution of the years gone by. Ansonville now has two banks and several supply stores, and is booming since the coming of the road.

Norwood, the second town on the new line, is the terminus of a branch line of the Southern from Salisbury. They have a cotton mill and several other industrial plants.

At Albemarle the Southbound again reaches the Southern. This is the county seat of Stanly, and the town has two cotton mills and splendid educational advantages. Just north of Albemarle you will find a large granite quarry in operation.

Above Albemarle the new road runs through the property of the Whitney Company, where the great hydro-electric plant is being developed. The new bridge completed yesterday crosses the Yadkin river just above the Whitney dam.

The next town is Southmont, formerly old Fairmont, which is being built by John T. Patrick, formerly industrial agent of the Seaboard Air Line and the pioneer town builder of Southern Pines and Pinehurst. This is to be a splendid industrial community. Already a number of manufacturing plants have located including silk mills and furniture factories.

Going north is Lexington. Here the main line of the Southern is crossed. Lexington is the county seat of Davidson county and is an important manufacturing town. They have several furniture factories, and it is an excellent tobacco point.

Extending north to Winston-Salem, the Southbound connect with one of the main lines of the Norfolk & Western. Several lines of the Southern also radiate from Winston. Within a few years this town has become a city, due to its large manufacturing industries. Winston leads the world in the manufacture of tobacco. This city has splendid educational institutions, among them Salem academy, the only Moravian college in the South.

Railroad contractors are extravagant in their praise of the new road. They say that no road in the State

STATE DRAINAGE CONVENTION HERE

Fully Two Hundred Delegates From North Carolina Expected Today.

THE RECLAMATION OF LANDS

Third Annual Session Convenes This Morning—Many Very Prominent Speakers—Entertainment and Boat Trip.

The city is rapidly filling with delegates to the third annual convention of the North Carolina Drainage Association, which convenes in the Court House here this morning at 10:30 o'clock for a two days' session. Dr. Joseph Hyde Pratt, the secretary, stated last night that from reports received by him an attendance of at least 200 is expected. The majority of these will arrive on the trains this morning, only about 50 having arrived up to last night. Some will come in this afternoon and probably others on the evening trains today.

The delegates arriving yesterday and last night were met at the union station by members of the local reception committee and escorted uptown. Some are stopping at the hotels while others are guests of friends in the city. The Orton is headquarters of the convention and most of the delegates who had arrived last night are registered there. There was an informal reception at The Orton last night in honor of the delegates who had arrived. Among those registered on the secretary's book up to 10 o'clock last night were Dr. Joseph Hyde Pratt, Chapel Hill, State Geologist and secretary of the association; J. A. Brown, of Chadbourn, president; Geo. F. Farrell, Bayboro; len, Manson; D. B. McNeill, Walter Allan, Manson; D. B. McNeill, Lumberton; D. L. Struthers, Chadbourn; J. M. Simmons and J. A. Young, Old Dock; E. M. Johnston, Willard; J. A. Wilkinson, Belhaven; Wm. C. Stinson, Moyock; J. T. Foy, Scott's Hill; B. F. Keith and Z. W. Whitehead, Wilmington; J. W. Bruson, Norfolk, Va.; H. C. McQueen, Wilmington; L. H. Vollers, Kelly; Joseph D. Smith, James Owen Reilly and J. A. McGeachy, Wilmington; E. C. Murphy, Atkinson; D. J. Corbett, Jr., Currie; A. J. Bloodworth, Collie; C. W. Lyon, Kellys; E. N. Clark, Wilmington.

Governor W. W. Kitchin, who was on the programme for an address today, will not be able to attend, having advised Dr. Pratt to this effect late yesterday afternoon, neither will Mr. A. B. Lukens, of Moyock, be in attendance, but his place will be filled by Mr. Wm. C. Stinson, of the same town. Mr. J. O. Wright, drainage engineer for the State of Florida, is also prevented from being present, but he sent his address, which will be read to the convention. Representative E. M. Koonce, of Onslow county, arrived in the city yesterday afternoon to attend the convention, but in response to a telegram he had to leave on the 7 o'clock train for Norfolk, Va., where he appears as counsel in one of the several cotton contract cases to be heard before a special master there. Mr. Koonce knew that he had to go to Norfolk this week, but had hoped that the particular case in which he is interested would not come up until the latter part of the week, but he learned upon his arrival here that it would be necessary for him to leave at once.

The convention will be called to order at 10:30 o'clock this morning in the Court House by President J. A. Brown, of Chadbourn. After prayer by Rev. Dr. J. H. Foster, pastor of the First Baptist church, Mayor Walter G. MacRae will be presented and in behalf of the city of Wilmington will welcome the visitors. The response will be by President Brown. This will be followed by report of Dr. Pratt, secretary and treasurer, and the appointment of committees; address by Congressman John H. Small; Hon. C. G. Elliott, of the United States Department of Agriculture, and Senator F. M. Simmons, all of whom are expected to arrive this morning. "Building Up a Country by Drainage" will be the subject of remarks by Mr. E. T. Lamb, president Norfolk Southern Railroad; Mr. W. J. Craig, of the A. C. L., and Mr. J. W. White, of the S. A. L., after which recess will be taken for dinner.

The afternoon session convenes at 3 o'clock and will open with an address on "Drainage Problem and Drainage Bonds," by Dr. Joseph Hyde Pratt. "Practical Work Under the North Carolina Drainage Law," will be the subject of an address by Mr. Lawrence Brett, of the Brett Engineering Construction Co., Wilson. This will be followed by five-minute reports from drainage districts and among the speakers will be Hon. O. L. Clark, Hon. Geo. B. McLeod, Hon. S. S. Mann, Messrs. P. H. Johnson, Ernest Green, C. R. Humphreys, Wm. C. Stinson and John A. Wilkinson. An address by Congressman H. L. Godwin, of Dunn, will conclude the afternoon programme.

Tonight the visitors will be entertained at a smoker in the rooms of the Chamber of Commerce at which a number of addresses will be made. Tomorrow morning the visitors will be taken for a trip down the Cape Fear river on the revenue cutter Seminole and a business session will be held on board the boat. All meetings of the association are open to the public and it is hoped to have a large attendance of the people of the city. Accredited delegates to the convention will be furnished with tickets by the secretary of the Association while resident delegates and others may be supplied by applying to Chairman Wm. E. Springer, of the committee, at No. 14 North Front street.

THE WESTERN METHODISTS

J. N. Huggins, Rev. R. G. Barrett, Rev. H. F. Chreitzberg and Rev. T. E. Smiley. Their associates in the ministry, many of them, paid verbal tributes to their life and work.

Assisted by several other ministers, at Burkhead church last evening, Bishop Hendrix ordained as elders eight traveling preachers and one local preacher.

The features of the closing session of the conference today was the adoption of reports and the reading of the appointments for next year. The report of the committee on temperance endorsed the North Carolina Anti-Saloon League's work, condemned the sale of near-beer and included a resolution that the next General Assembly be petitioned to prohibit the sale of the article. The action of the General Conference in recommending that the preachers abstain from the use of tobacco was endorsed.

The report of the Board of Missions contained a recommendation that the assessments for Foreign Missions and Domestic Missions during the coming year be fixed at $21,500.

C. H. Neal offered a strong resolution opposing the increasing of assessments of the conference for 1912 by the various boards of the church. In support of his resolution he rererred to the high cost of living and said there is a limit of possibility financially and that the limit in this conference had about been reached.

THE SOUTHBOUND IN NOW COMPLETE

with the possible exception of the C. C. & O., is so well built. No grade on the extension exceeds one per cent., and only the heaviest rail has been used. The completion of this road means a short haul from the West which will greatly improve the time of handling coal and freight shipments to this territory. It will be of great benefit to Charleston as it is expected that that port will handle the bulk of the traffic to Panama.

The officials of the Norfolk & Western and the Atlantic Coast Line with F. H. Fries, of Winston, the president of the Winston-Salem Southbound, have pushed the work and only 13 months were necessary for the entire work of building the line from the time of letting the contracts.

President Fries has arranged for a special train. November the 25th, the first passenger train over the new line will leave Wadesboro and go over the entire route to Winston, stopping at all stations. This train will carry officials of the Atlantic Coast Line, Norfolk & Western and the Southbound. Accompanying them will be invited guests and representatives of the press. The party will be entertained at Winston-Salem Friday night as the guests of Mr. Fries and will return Saturday.

BROTHERHOID RE-ORGANIZED.

Organization Arranging to Distribute Baskets Thanksgiving Day.

The Brotherhood of St. James' Episcopal Church was recently re-organized with the election of the following officers for the year: Director, W. N. Harriss; vice director, P. Q. Beckwith; secretary and treasurer, J. L. Hazelhurst. In addition to the officers Rev. Dr. Wm. H. Milton, the rector, and George Rountree, Esq., compose the executive committee. The membership has been divided into two classes, active and associate members, and there are nearly 20 of the former and about 40 of the latter class. Both will participate in the work of the organization during the year and the Brotherhood hopes to be a greater factor for good in the church and community this Fall and Winter than ever before.

On Thanksgiving Day the Brotherhood will distribute baskets of provisions to poor families throughout the city, as has been the custom for years. The baskets are distributed irrespective of denomination upon the recommendation of the Associated Charities. Generous contributions have already been made by merchants and others, but considerably more gifts of staples and provisions are needed. Any one desiring to contribute something should communicate with the officers of the Brotherhood who will send for the contributions.

CRIPPEN'S TIME IS SHORT.

Will be Executed Nov. 23rd.—Petition Is Denied.

London, Nov. 21.—Dr. Harvey H. Crippen, the murderer of his wife, Belle Elmore Crippen, the actress, will be executed, as previously sentenced on November 23rd, the Home Secretary, Winston Churchill, today denying the American doctor's petition for a reprieve and announcing his declination to interfere with the sentence of the court.

Officials of Scotland Yard today denied the report said to have been circulated in the United States that Dr. Hawley H. Crippen under sentence of death for the murder of his wife, had made a confession.

New York, Nov. 21.—Everett G. Brown, of Chicago, was elected president of the Amateur Athletic Union today. Henry G. Penniman, of Baltimore, his only opponent, withdrew his name after he had been nominiated.

UNION SCHOOL WORK.

Mr. Carl Seitters Assumes Charge of Castle Haynes Road School.

(Communicated.)

At a meeting called at the Union School House, Castle Haynes road, Sunday afternoon, Mrs. W. A. Lineker tendered her resignation as the assistant superintendent of the union work carried on there. There were reasons stated why she deemed this imperative. The superintendent, Mr. D. Joyner, who is often compelled by business to be out of town, could not assume the whole duties, therefore a successor was looked for and found in Mr. Carl Seitters, a young Christian who some 18 months ago, expressed himself as willing, when fitted, to devote his whole public life to the Master, and surely he can find nothing that can help him more than the work now laid on him. He will have the hearty support of Mrs. Lineker and Mr. Joyner and the whole union and last but not least of the Yoke Fellows, who have so graciously and loyally served us in the past and to whom we desire as a union to express our grateful thanks. Friends of Christ, pray for this young Lutheran in the work laid upon him.

The work will continue as heretofore under a new head. All are urged to help in this very worthy work.

BLANCHE RETURNS TO PORT.

Made Trip to Beaufort With Barge—New Dredge from Cape Cod.

The tug Blanche, Capt. Sanders, towing the barge Flora laden with pontoons from Beaufort for dredging work on the Cape Fear, arrived late Saturday night. Capt. Sanders received a telegram yesterday from New York stating that the new dredge, which has been leased by Capt. Doane, is expected at New York from Cape Cod the first of this week and from there will proceed to Wilmington arriving here about five days later. The new dredge is in tow of the tug Albatross. Unlesss she has good weather at sea it will probably be several days later before she arrives at this port.

THANKSGIVING WINES.

Messrs. Sol. Bear & Co., Have Announcement of Interest.

Of interest to connoisseurs at this festive Thanksgiving period is the advertisement of Messrs. Sol. Bear & Co., of this city, who are calling attention to the superior line of light wines manufactured by them in their winery in this city. LENOIR PLANT DESTROYED.

Chair Factory Burned, Entailing Loss of About $80,000.

Lenoir, N. C., Nov. 20.—About 11 o'clock last night the Lenoir Chair Company's factory was discovered on fire and before assistance could reach the burning building the flames had gained such headway it could not be saved. When the fire department reached the scene the entire building, which was a wooden structure, was enveloped in surging flames.

After hard work the firemen kept the fire from spreading to the Moore Furniture Company's factory, which is located near the scene of the conflagration. At one time it was feared both structures would be totally destroyed.

The loss is estimated at between $70,000 and $80,000, with about $28,000 insurance.

SPORTING MAN DEAD.

Body Found Between R. R. Tracks at Fayetteville—Cause.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Fayetteville, N. C., Nov. 21.—Ben Powers, a sporting character of this city, was found lying between two railroad tracks a few hundred yards north of the Atlantic Coast Line station, suffering from heart disease, by a railroad employe early this morning, and died shortly after having been removed to the branch office of the Southern Express Company in the depot. He was on his way to his home on Moore street when stricken about 11 o'clock last night. The coroner's jury rendered a verdict that death was due to natural causes.

WHEN HER BACK ACHES

A Woman Finds All Her Energy and Ambition Slipping Away.

Wilmington women know the aches and pains that come when the kidneys fail to make life a burden. Backche, hip pains, headaches, dizzy spells, distressing urinary troubles, all tell of sick kidney and warn you of the stealthy approach of diabetes, dropsy and Bright's disease. Doan's Kidney Pills permanently cure all these disorders. Here's proof of it in a Wilmington woman's words:

Mrs. Laura E. Hand, 809 Ann St., Wilmington, N. C., says: "I am willing to recommend Doan's Kidney Pills as they did me a world of good. I suffered from dull, nagging backaches and had such severe pains across my loins that I was prevented from sleeping well. The kidney secretions also caused me annoyance. When I saw Doan's Kidney Pills advertised, I procured a box from Robert R. Bellamy's drug store and they did me more good than any other remedy I had ever taken. The backache ceased, my kidneys became normal and I could go to bed and obtain a full night's rest."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

STATE ASSISTANCE ASKED

Charlotte-Wilmington Highway Association Proposes Township Meetings—State Geologist Pratt to Aid in Campaign.

The officers of the Charlotte-Wilmington Highway Association have planned for township meetings to be held in each county to be traversed by the highway connecting these two important cities and have requested the assistance of Dr. Joseph Hyde Pratt, State Geologist, and also State road engineers to definitely locate the route and otherwise aid in pushing the project to a successful conclusion.

Dr. Pratt has received a similar request from the officers of the Salisbury-Asheville Highway Association and he stated last night that he would endeavor to comply with both requests. The purpose of the township meetings is to arouse greater interest in the proposed highways and urge the support of all the people in the construction of improved roads forming links of the highway. The engineers will definitely locate the route and give any assistance they may in the construction of the improved roads. Dr. Pratt is very much interested in the several highway projects in North Carolina and believes that it is a matter of a short time until some of them at least are completed.

Mr. W. L. Spoon, road engineer, is in Columbus county this week. He was at Whiteville yesterday and will be there today. Tomorrow he goes to Fair Bluff for two days. He is giving advice regarding roads to be built and also assisting in the location of roads. On November 25th a good roads meeting will be held at White Cross, Orange county, in the interest of the link of the Raleigh-Greensboro highway, which passes through Orange county. This meeting will be attended by both Dr. Pratt and Engineer Spoon. From November 28th to December 1st Mr. Spoon will be at Warrenton assisting in the location of a road which is to be a link in the Capital-to-Capital route. There will also be a good roads meeting for the purpose of forming an association. A similar meeting will be held at Graham, Alamance county, December 2nd.

Dr. Pratt has recently issued a report which gives an account of the wood using industries of North Carolina. It takes up a study of the various kinds of timber that are being cut in North Carolina and the uses to which they are put and also the best uses for which they are adapted. It is also shown in the report what woods North Carolina supplies the State demand and where the balance is obtained. It is a very interesting and comprehensive report, of which Mr. H. S. Sackett, in charge of the wood utilization, of the United States government, says "is one of the most neat and attractive publications that has ever been issued by any State working in co-operation with this office. I think your organization is to be complimented on its issuance." Copies may be obtained from the State Geologist, Chapel Hill, N. C.

Dr. Pratt has just received an invitation to make an address before the American Road Builders' Association at its seventh annual meeting in Indianapolis, Ind., December 6th, but has not yet decided whether he can accept.

FUNERAL OF MR. WORTH.

Services Held from First Presbyterian Church Yesterday.

The funeral of the late Mr. Barzillai Gardner Worth, who passed away Saturday afternoon, was held from the First Presbyterian church at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon in the presence of a large concourse of sorrowing relatives and sympathizing friends, gathered there to pay a last sad tribute of respect to one so highly esteemed and beloved in the community. Members of the Chamber of Commerce, of which Mr. Worth was a member for many years, attended the services in a body. The many beautiful floral designs bore silent testimony of the general high esteem in which Mr. Worth was held by his many friends here and elsewhere. Mr. Worth was deeply interested in the Y. M. C. A., and in respect to his memory the Association was closed yesterday from 1 to 6 o'clock. Following the services at the church, which were conducted by the pastor, Rev. Dr. John M. Wells, the body was tenderly borne to Oakdale cemetery, where it was laid to rest. The pallbearers were: Honorary, Col. John D. Taylor and Messrs. James Sprunt, B. F. Hall, Clayton Giles, Sr., H. C. McQueen, W. H. Chadbourn, R. A. Brand, Charles H. Robinson and H. W. Malloy; active, Col. Walker Taylor and Messrs. Philander Pearsall, James M. Chadbourn, William H. Sprunt, E. C. Holt and James F. Post.

The Ministerial Association.

The feature of the weekly meeting of the Wilmington Ministerial Association yesterday morning was an address by Rev. David G. Wylie, D. D., pastor of Scott's Presbyterian Church, New York City, whose remarks were of an exceedingly interesting and helpful nature. The meeting was presided over by Rev. W. A. Snyder, pastor of St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran Church, vice president of the association.

ROCKY POINT NEWS.

Pork Being Killed—Crops and Other Items of Interest.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Rocky Point, N. C., Nov. 21.—Quite a lot of pork is being killed on this cold wave and it is generally in fine condition. The peanut crop is being slowly picked off, not enough machines to do the work expeditiously. The river steamers are kept busy. Capt. Stokes, of the steamer Duplin, was spoken off Lane's Ferry this afternoon. The boat was loaded to the gunwales with a miscellaneous cargo and all manner of good things indigeneous to Pender's productive soil. The public ginnery here is kept busy and lots of cotton is shipped by rail.

There will be given by the Ladies' Aid Society Thanksgiving night a supper for a good cause. The cookery of the ladies here is known far and wide and a good crowd is expected to be present to partake and enjoy the festivities of the occasion.

Mrs. Eliza George, of this place, died last night and was buried at Riley Creek Cemetery this afternoon. She is survived by Miss Judson and Colin George, of Wilmington; Mrs. J. C. Futch and Mr. Oscar George, of Rocky Point. She had been in declining health for several weeks. Her children were with her at her death.

DON'T SAY YOU ARE OLD.

You only feel old.
Digestive organs are weak—don't assimilate food as they used to.
Other organs act more slowly and less effectively.
Blood is thin and sluggish.
Renewal of strength does not equal the wear and tear of your system.
That's what makes you feel old.
Nothing in the world will tone up and invigorate those weak, backsliding organs, make rich blood and create strength so quickly as Vinol.
Vinol is not a secret nostrum, simply the medical elements of the cods' livers, with the useless nauseating oil eliminated and tonic iron added. Try a bottle of Vinol with the understanding that your money will be returned if it does not make you stronger, feel younger and give you an added interest in life. Robert R. SANITORIUM FOR WHITEVILLE

Dr. Crowell Will Build—Growing Pecans—Squirrels and Other Game—Big Insurance Policy—Wood Famine Threatened.

Special Star Correspondence.)

Whiteville, N. C., Nov. 21.—It is understood that Dr. Crowell is having the lots he bought at sale of the Burkhead property on Madison street graded for the purpose of building a fine and up-to-date sanitorium thereon.

This is something badly needed in our section, and would prove a success from the days the doors are thrown open. Dr. Crowell, who, by the way, traces his descent to the great Protector of England, Oliver Cromwell, is one of the leading physicians and surgeons of the South, having completed his studies in the leading medical colleges of America and Germany.

It is said that work will soon begin on the sanitorium. Nearly every week some new enterprise is organized for Whiteville.

The Whiteville High School now numbers nearly 300 pupils, and its rooms are filled to overflowing. The trustees say that the building must be enlarged, a dormitory built and other improvements added to increase its efficiency and accommodate the many applicants for admission.

An article in the Star Sunday, on pecan culture in Texas, has created considerable interest in this town and county. Pecan growing is getting to be a most important industry with us, and bids fair to rival the scuppernong business. Mr. J. G. Thompson, of Whiteville, who has a large pecan grove, was awarded the first prize on his exhibit at the Charleston Exposition, over those from Texas and other States. The pecans grown in Columbus are paper shell and remarkable for their flavor. Mr. R. H. Powell, of Vineland, also has two large pecan nurseries, as has many other citizens. The soil and climate of Columbus county seems peculiarly adapted to the growth of pecans, and there is an inviting field here for investors in that business. Our marsh lands can be bought at a nominal cost, and then drained, are especially adapted for pecan culture. Threre is more money in a Columbus county pecan orchard than in a Florida orange grove, and then the trees are immune from frost and insect pests. They require no attention whatever, and will bear for a century or more. Parties who want to make easy money, with little labor or expense, should come to Columbus county, and grow pecans and scuppernongs.

Some weeks since The Star reported the accidental death of Mr. S. C. Gore, in this county, who was killed by a fall to the ground waile he was building a chimney. Mr. Gore carried a $7,000 life insurance policy in a company represented by Mr. W. E. McDaniel, of Whiteville, its conditions being that if the insured accidentally meets death the amount of his policy would be doubled. Last Saturday Mr. McDaniel received a check for the heirs of Mr. Gore amounting to $14,000, and which he delivered to them today.

There are a great many squirrels being killed now. Mr. Manly Toon, of Whiteville, went out one evening recently and brought in 21, and Milton Clark, of Clarkton, has killed over 250 squirrels this season. Game was never so abundant, and Mr. E. Maultsby, a noted hunter of Whiteville, tells us that he has received within the past few days a number of letters from parties wanting him to go hunting with them, including men living in New York, Chicago and Cincinnati. But landowners in Columbus are beginning to post their property, and will put a stop to outsiders killing off their game, without either thanks or renumeration.

Cold weather has set in, and a wood famine threatens Whiteville, on account of inability to hire hands at any price to cut cord wood. Several farmers who contemplated clearing up land have been forced to abandon the idea, owing to scarcity of labor. It is also impossible to get cooks in Whiteville, and most of our good ladies are forced to do their own house work. Negroes command high prices for their work, and it only requires about two days' labor a week to support them, when they quit work. Our citizens are demanding that the vagrant law be vigorously enforced.

A DARING BURGLARY.

Store of Blount Co., at Rocky Mount Entered—Negro Shot to Death.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Rocky Mount, N. C., Nov. 21.—A daring burglary occurred here Saturday night between 12 and 3 o'clock when the store of the Blount Co., on Main street, was entered and about $500 worth of dry goods carried away. Entrance was effected by breaking a glass in the rear, reaching through and unlatcaing a door. The loot included overcoats, suits, shoes and gents' furnishings. An effort to secure bloodhounds to track the criminals was not successful. Although the police recovered about $100 worth of stolen goods in a general raid in a negro settlement last night, there is no definite clue to the robbers themselves.

While a free fight was underway Saturday night at a colored ball on Mr. Drew Doughtry's place, two miles from town, Robert Hines, colored, was shot to death by another young negro, both sons of well-to-do colored planters of the neighborhood.

AFFAIRS AT STATE CAPITAL

Fort Fisher Survivors Association—Humane Society Chartered—Decrease in Crime—Methodist Orphanage.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., Nov. 21.—Rev. J. A. Smith, of Wilmington, vice president of the Fort Fisher Survivors' Association, in the city the past two days, is especially enthusiastic over the determined movement that is to be made on the next Congress of the United States for making Fort Fisher a National park. The bill is already pending with good prospects, it is said, of becoming a law.

The United States District and Circuit court with Judge H. G. Connor presiding, will convene Tuesday for a two weeks' term during which there are 160 cases to be called for hearing.

A charter was issued today for the Charlotte Humane Society, for the prevention of cruelty to children and animals, with Misses Julia M. Alexander, Nettie M. Heath, Mary Spencer Allen, Kathrine Durham Thomas and Ada Weddington as the incorporators. There is no capital stock.

There is also a charter for the Industrial Union of America (Inc.), of Southern Pines, the union having for its purpose the fostering of the Industrial Union Training School and Orphanage at Southern Pines and other institutions that may be established in other parts of the country by the Union for the training and elevation of the negro race.

A remarkable decrease in crime in North Carolina, certainly, of prosecutions for crime in this State is the showing made by the biennial report of the attorney general just completed.

The report of the Attorney General gives the criminal cases prosecuted the years ending July 1, 1909 and July 1, 1910. Some of the most notable figures follow: Retailing, decreased from 1,501 to 1,348; assault with deadly weapon, 1,988 to 1,394; carrying concealed weapons 1,187 to 876; burglary, first degree 21 to 7; second degree 32, increased to 40; assault and battery 164 to 149; affray 783 to 632; assault 382 to 305; cruelty to animals, 105 to 87; disturbing meetings 162 to 145; fornication and adultery 358 to 279; gambling 498 to 346; larceny 1,526 to 1,150; larceny and receiving 405 to 292; manslaughter 40 to 26; murder, second degree, 71 to 62; first degree, 77 to 53; perjury 72 to 42; criminal assault 20 to 18; attempt to outrage 39 each year; robbery 31 to 22; seduction 32 to 31; resisting officers 118 to 85; miscellaneous crimes 706 to 522; abandonment 80 to 79; arson, 7 to 5; burnings other than arson, 24 increased to 27; disorderly house 97 to 47; embezzlement 98 to 67; failure to list taxes 311 to 149; housebreaking 99 increased to 110.

It was just ten years ago that the North Carolina Methodist Episcopal Orphanage here was opened this Thanksgiving and Superintendent J. N. Cole points with pride to the fact that in caring for over 245 children in that time there has been but one death and that one was due to tuberculosis and an operation. The management is appealing for money to complete a $4,000 laundry plant after which there will be a movement for an additional boys' dormitory to add 40 to the capacity which is now, with 147 children, taxed to its utmost. The plant is valued at fully $50,000.

COULDN'T GO TO CHURCH

Unbearable Conditions Which Forced This Unhappy Clinton Lady to Remain at Home.

Clinton, Tenn.—Mrs. Daisy Weaver, of this place, says: "I was in very bad health, and suffered great pain with womanly troubles. Sometimes I was so nervous I thought I could not live. I had been in this condition about six years, and had given up hopes of ever being any better, when I decided I would try Cardui, the woman's tonic. Now, I feel like a new woman. I can do all my housework, and although it is a mile walk, I can go to church. It has been a great pleasure to me this Summer to be out in the sunshine and fresh air again. I feel very grateful for the medicine."

Cardui has a successful record of more than half a century in the treatment of womanly weakness and disease. No medicine without merit could remain in such constant use, and show such a continual increase in sales, as Cardui has done. It relieves pain, like headache, backache, womanly misery, etc., and builds up womanly strength.

Be sure that Cardui will benefit you.

FIRE IN COTTON.

Several Bales Damaged at Lumberton Sunday Morning—Loss.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Lumberton, N. C., Nov. 21.—Yesterday morning shortly before 9 o'clock several bales of cotton belonging to Mr. Geo. B. McLeod, which had been placed on the vacant lot opposite the Court House, was discovered to be on fire. When first noticed the fire was burning in a blaze over the tops of several bales. The alarm was quickly given and in a short time a stream of water had the plaze under control. About 25 bales were damaged more or less. A watchman who was kept on duty states this morning that he discovered fire in three bales about midnight but soon had it extinguished. While there is no indications of any fire this morning a close watch is being kept on it. It is impossible as yet to give anything like an estimate of the damage. It seems to be the general opinion that the fire originated from a cigarette or cigar being thrown on the cotton by some one passing, or was dropped by some boys who were playing on the cotton.

About 11 o'clock yesterday a Seaboard section house near the station was discovered on fire, but was soon extinguished, a hole two or three feet square being burned in the roof. This fire is thought to have originated from a spark from a passing locomotive.

Deputy Sheriff Spivey left this morning for Raleigh with three prisoners, who were sentenced to serve terms in the penitentiary. The convicted men were all colored, and were convicted of murder in the second degree. One goes for six years, another for 10 years and the third for 20 years.

Saves an Iowa Man's Life.

The very grave seemed to yawn before Robert Madsen, of West Burlington, Iowa, when, after seven weeks in the hospital, four of the best physicians gave him up. Then was shown the marvelous curative power of Electric Bitters. For, after eight months of frightful suffering from liver trouble and yellow jaundice, getting no help from other remedies or doctors, five bottles of this matchless medicine completely cured him. It's positively guaranteed for stomach, liver or kidney troubles and never disappoints. Only 50c at Robert R. Bellamy's.

Temporary Heat Quickly

Did you ever stop to think of the many ways in which a perfect oil heater is of value? If you want to sleep with your window open in winter, you can get sufficient heat from an oil heater while you undress at night, and then turn it off. Apply a match in the morning, when you get out of bed, and you have heat while you dress.

Those who have to eat an early breakfast before the stove is radiating heat can get immediate warmth from an oil heater, and then turn it off.

The girl who practices on the piano in a cold room in the morning can have warmth from an oil heater while she plays, and then turn it off.

The member of the family who has to walk the floor on a cold winter's night with a restless baby can get temporary heat with an oil heater, and then turn it off. The

PERFECTION SMOKELESS OIL HEATER

Absolutely smokeless and odorless

is invaluable in its capacity of quickly giving heat. Apply a match and it is immediately at work. It will burn for nine hours without refilling. It is safe, smokeless and odorless. It has a damper top and a cool handle. An indicator always shows the amount of oil in the font.

It has an automatic-locking flame spreader which prevents the wick from being turned high enough to smoke, and is easy to remove and drop back so that the wick can be cleaned in an instant.

The burner body or gallery cannot become wedged, and can be quickly unscrewed for rewicking. Finished in japan or nickel, strong, durable, well-made, built for service, and yet light and ornamental.

Tuesday, November 22, 1910.

A report comes from the West that the wheat crop is doing finely. Many wheat growers will be surprised that wheat would grow at all after the Democrats had carried the country.

The Columbia State boasts about a South Carolina girl who has raised 120 bushels of corn on one acre of land. If girls would quit raising Cain and take to raising corn at that rate, they would be independent of all the fellows of the land.

The Rev. Dr. Anna Shaw, president of the National American Woman Suffrage Association, declares that the way to curb the Trusts is to give women the right to vote. The trusts might make it interesting for the lady voters if they are given the ballot but wouldn't it be terrible if it should turn out that lady voters should get to expecting something for their votes?

The government census gave Augusta, Ga., more than 4 per cent. less inhabitants than that city had ten years ago. Such a count as that is absurd, unless Augusta has been committing race suicide or has been headquarters of the emigration agents. Augusta is going to count her own inhabitants herself and we believe she can do it more satisfactorily and more correctly than Uncle Sam. Uncle Sam is all right in the abstract, but in the concrete he may be a bunch of incompetent officeholders and employes. The government can't do anything any better than anybody else under a system which gives a man a job on account of politics and not because of competency.

The Window Glass Trust, which controlled 95 per cent. of the manufacture of window glass made in the United States recently was fined something like $10,000 or $12,000 after prosecution by the government law department. On the first of October the Window Glass Trust advanced prices 70 per cent. and in ten months of its business the company cleared $1,000,000 or 400 per cent. on its capital stock. Since the government has been so awfully hard on the Trust it has notified its employes that their wages will be cut 30 per cent. Workingmen can see from this how much tariff benefits they get and for whose real benefit the tariff is levied. They also ascertain who gets it in the neck when a Trust is hit. The trust will make it out of the tariff if they can or out of its employes if they must.

The North Carolina Drainage Association, which meets in Wilmington today, has a most hearty welcome on the part of this city and its people. We know of no greater forward movement for the development of the agricultural interests of North Carolina than the work which the Drainage Association aims to accomplish. The purpose of the Association is to promote the drainage of all kinds of farm lands and to encourage the reclamation of thousands of acres of fertile bottom and swamp lands. Drainage will immensely increase the value of North Carolina lands and bring about a largely increased production of crops. It also will add great wealth to the State in the way of the value of reclaimed lands. The work of the convention should attract great interest throughout North Carolina, and, as Wilmington is in the centre of a region which is to be tremendously benefitted by this great drainage movement, it is hoped the citizens of our city will attend the convention and encourage the mavement in every possible manner.

POLITICS AND PRICES.

The Star has often called attention to the ridiculous contention that the price of products, not specifically protected and controlled by combinations or trusts, are controlled by politics, either Republican or Democratic. Among the farmers Republican politicians claimed credit for the good prices for farm products, but among consumers and in a committee report to Congress they denied bitterly that Republicanism was responsible for the high cost of living on account of high prices.

Since the election some of our Republican exchanges in North Carolina, noting the tendency to lower prices for meat products and cereals, are already twitting the farmers for having voted the Democratic ticket, in view of the fact that there is a possibility that prices on some products will go lower. Probably, however, the farmers are more intelligent than the republican editors who narrow their observations down to such things as chickens and eggs. Some North Carolina Republican editors go so far as to say when prices begin to fall farmers will then see what dupes they were for voting the Democratic ticket.

Of course, all that sort of thing is ridiculous as well as amusing. As farmers probably know, the prices which they get for their products do not depend upon politics, while lots of the prices that farmers have to pay for their supplies are exhorbitant because they are controlled by trusts and combinations organized by reason of the protective tariff. The tariff artificially aids manufacturers to organize and control prices, but the farmer who is not protected has no means of fixing his prices, for they are fixed for him by the law of supply and demand, except in the case of cotton, the price of which, perhaps, may be affected to some extent in favor of cotton growers by the fact that they have organized for curtailment and storage and know better how to market their cotton. Notwithstanding their organization and warehouse plans, the law of supply and demand still holds good as to cotton. A short crop beats politics and farmers' organizations all hollow in keeping up the price of cotton. An over-production of cotton would lower the price in spite of all the Republicanism and Democracy on the face of the earth.

No doubt North Carolina farmers are laughing at the puny efforts of some unthinking Republican editors who have spung the probability of lower prices as a Democratic scare. The farmers probably know that the Democrats have not yet gained control of this government. It is still under a Republican President, a Republican Congress and a Republican protective tariff. The Congress following the present one is to be Democratic but there will be a Republican President, a Republican Senate and a Republican tariff law till the Democrats amend it in some particulars with the consent of the Republican Senate. There is a Republican Senate to check a Democratic House and a Republican President to finally veto any tariff act or any other bill that the Democratic House and Republican Senate may pass.

Farmers who do their own thinking know that if prices fall now, the fall is taking place under Republicanism and not under Democracy, but our wise North Carolina Republican contemporaries will resent the idea that Republicanism is responsible for it but will claim that good prices are due to Republicanism except when it is the buyer who kicks against high prices. Prices have been extremely low under Republican administrations and extremly high under Republican administrations. Prices are liable to be high or low under either Republican or Democratic administrations and nobody need not be fooled on that score.

While Republican wiseacres are getting ready to put their puny blame on the Democrats for lowering prices, we fear some Democratic wiseacres are going too far in rejoicing over falling prices as the result of the election. More voters will be tickled at lower prices than will rejoice at high prices. Consumers are in the maojrity both in the cities and on the farms, as farm products constitute a small portion of the things which bring high prices. However, the Democrats who are laying claim to low prices as the result of a Democratic victory will go to singing another tune if it should happen that prices would go so low as to bring on a period of depression. Periods of depression and even panics alternate with high prices and prosperity under any kind of an administration at Washington, and it is only necessary to remark that they seem to alternate about every ten years, for the last fifty years, while the Republicans have been in control of the government, with the exception of eight of the fifty years.

This question of responsibility for higher or lower prices is getting to be a little ridiculous in Washington as well as in North Carolina, where our Republican contemporaries are creating the amusement. Our old friend Secretary Wilson, of the Agricultural Department, not long ago most thankfully ascribed prosperity and the productiveness of the earth to the Republican party. That was when he wanted it to have political effect, but now that meat and grain prices are said to be lowering he ascribes it to the bumper grain crop and larger production of hogs and cattle. On the other hand, Dr. H. W. Wiley practically takes issue with his chief when he claims that so-called reduction in the price of meats "is merely a deliberate manipulation of the market, just as the increase in prices was unjust, unreasonable and uncalled for." Dr. Wiley further assigns the control of prices to the operation of the Trusts, saying that "the interests which controlled the market a year ago and forced the price of meat up to an abnormal level are still in control of the market." He thinks if the meat trust is going to lower prices they are going to do it in order to crush out some opposition that has arisen to enjoy business prosperity while they can get big prices for meats.

A Washington dispatch to the New York Journal of Commerce, on Saturday, says politicians at Washington are now making vigorous preparations for a bitter discussion of prices and costs of living during the coming Winter. Part of the discussion will occur on the floor of Congress and before committees and part will be laid before the public in the shape of a popular controversy and stump speaking, remarks at banquets and the like. The Journal of Commerce says the Democrats "made absurd and impossible promises with reference to a forthcoming reduction in prices while the campaign was still in progress and now they are under the unpleasant necessity of making good." Our esteemed New York contemporary says fair minded Democrats recognize that producing lower prices by legislation will be difficult. oHwever, it is believed that something can be done by legislation cold-storage and prohibiting sales of goods at prices fixed by combinations and trusts. In that respect we may get the benefit of some lower prices on products which the trusts and combinations buy from farmers at low prices and sell at high prices.

SUGAR PLANTERS COMPLAIN.

Something which goes to show the farmers how tariff made trusts get the best of them and fix prices for their products can be observed in the complaint of the sugar planters and molasses producers in Louisiana. The sugar planters, according to the New Orleans States, have had a conference with Attorney General Guion in the matter of alleged combinations in restraint of trade injurious to their business. Meetings of the planters have been held for the purpose of uniting in some sort of action against combinations which control the output of their molasses and sugar without giving them fair prices.

The Louisiana Planter, the official organ of the various sugar associations, intimates that the alleged combinations are really against the molasses packers and distillers, "that the sugar trust is to be attacked in Louisiana as the Standard Oil Company had been in Texas," and that the methods of the New Orleans merchants engaged in the sugar industry are among the sources of complaint. The Planter reports that the Glucose Trust has made its way into Louisiana and is now the controlling factor in the molasses business. It monopolizes the glucose output and with its facilities for adulterating molasses with glucose they practically have secured control of the molasses business. They, therefore, fix the prices of sugarcane products to suit themselves and their methods and imnipulation are said to be inimical to the interest of the sugarcane growers.

CURRENT COMMENT.

It strikes one that there is a flavor of poetic justice in Governor Baldwin's projected libel suit against Mr. Roosevelt. The latter stretches the law to punish some of his enemies for saying uncomfortable things. Now Judge Baldwin means to turn the tables. In the long run things seem to balance up pretty well.—Portland Oregonian.

The Des Moines Tribune says: "Texas rolled up a Democratic majority of 130,000 last week. A good many more Iowans will have to settle in that State before it is landed in the Republican column." But the Iowans moving to Texas only increase the majority, for when they come South they only get to be as good as anybody else.—Jacksonville Times Union.

There are 25,000,000 acres of swamp land in the South, vast areas of it bordering on the Mississippi river. In other words, an empire is under water from which much food and wealth might be taken, but in the present condition it produces nothing for the benefit of mankind other than fish, wild animals and fowl. A convention, however, is now being held in Memphis this week for the purpose of discussing plans for reclaiming these lands, and from all accounts an effort will be made to enlist the aid of the Federal government.

"There is no reason," says the Toledo Blade, "why the government should not perform the whole work if that can be caried out as the work of irrigating the Western deserts is. Under the provisions of the reclamation act the farmers locating in each irrigation district will return every penny expended in bringing water to the soil."

"But The Blade overlooks the fact that the reclamation act applies only to lands which are a part of the public domain, whereas the titles to the swamp lands in the South are held by the States and private owners. A few months ago President Taft, in a public address, declared that he was opposed to such lands being reclaimed at the expense of the Federal government for the benefit of private owners, and there is not the least doubt that his position will be sustained by public sentiment. In time all the swamp lands in the South will be reclaimed, but the work will be performed by private effort and capital, which have already brought under cultivation in this State large areas of marsh lands which are the richest in the world. The work can be and will be done without waiting for any aid from the Federal government.—New Orleans States.

FRIENDS OF QUAKERS.

Asked to Contribute to Memorial Church at Richmond, Ind.

Richmond, Ind., Nov. 19.—Members of the Friends or Quaker church in the South, and their number has of late years increased quite rapidly, will be asked to contribute toward the erection of a church in this city that is to be a National memorial to the late Rev. Allen Jay, one of the most conspicuous Quakers the past half century, and whose work was more largely among the American yearly meetings than it was in the immediate territory in which he lived. Mr. Jay traveled from New England to California aiding the meetings and educational institutions in raising money to increase endowments or to lift debts and in this capacity he had no equal in the church. One institution that he aided greatly was Guilford College, N. C., and another was Southland College, Arkansas. He also worked to some extent among the English and Irish friends, who may also contribute toward the memorial. The proposed church, which is to cost $60,000 and seat 1,500 people, will be located on the campus of Earlham College, the principal western school of the Friends, and the two are to serve as a National center for this denomination, this city also being the head of Indiana Yearly Meeting, which has largest membership of any Friends meeting in the world.

LOCAL GREEKS ORGANIZE

Wilmington Branch of the Pan Hellenic Union Formed at Meeting Sunday Evening—Officers Elected—Objects.

A local branch of the Pan Hellenic Union, having a number of most worthy objects, was formed among the Greeks of the city at a largely attended meeting Sunday evening at 8 o'clock. The branch starts off with a membership of 30, but it is hoped in a very short time to have all the Greeks of the city, numbering about 50, enrolled.

The meeting was formally opened by the temporary chairman, Mr. D. G. Vafiadi, one of the city's most prominent Greek citizens, who in a short address explained the scope of the union and the benefits to be derived therefrom. He expressed the hope that every member would do his part toward the union by helping its growth and in conclusion urged that if there were any dissension among the members they should cease, as an example of the fellowship that should exist among the Greeks, particularly those of this community.

The Pan Hellenic Union, established only a few months ago, has already over 6,000 members and is spreading steadily among the Greek communities all over the States. The objects of the union are: To cultivate among its members and through them among all the Greeks residing in the United States and Canada the spirit of mutual aid and of love for their own nationality. To instil veneration and affection for the laws and institutions of their adopted country and the cultivation of friendly relations between the Greeks and American citizens. To teach the English and Greek languages, to preserve the Greek Orthodox church and to develop and propagate educational and moral doctrines among the Greek compatriots residing in the United States and Canada. To procure pecuniary and other aid for the members of the Union and those dependent upon them, and, as far as its means will permit, to extend its protection to Greek immigrants and laborers. To secure the moral and material assistance of the union toward the great needs of the Nation.

After the remarks of Mr. Vafiadi, the meeting entered into the election of officers, the ballots being opened by a special committee and the following declared unanimously elected for the ensuing year:

Manager—E. Procopis.
Secretary—Th. Meavronichols.
Treasurer—James Panagos.
Advisers—N. Coutrousnias, John Pistolis, Th. Papademos.

Pleasing features of the meeting were offers of Mr. E. Dinos, a well known Greek business man, to give a Greek flag and Messrs. James Panagos and Mike Mansuras to give a silk American flag. Both offers were accepted with thanks. The union will meet once a month.

GROWING PECANS.

Much Interest in Article Printed Sunday About Industry in Texas.

The article in Sunday's paper with reference to pecan culture in Texas has attracted the interest of many landowners in Wilmington and other Eastern Carolina counties. Mr. Thos. F. Bagley, of this city, yesterday showed a representative of the Star a specimen of some of the finest nuts ever seen here. They are of the Louisiana Paper Shell variety and are from a dozen or more trees Mr. Bagley has growing at the railway "Y", a short distance from the city. He has also grown the nuts with some success on Greenville Sound, the land in this section appearing to be admirably adapted to the nut. Mr. Bagley has forwarded a sample of the nuts grown here to Mr. Shaw, of the Agricultural Department at Raleigh to be included in the North Carolina exhibit, which is sent every year to various States in the Union. Mr. W. C. Smith, of this city, has also grown pecans very successfully in the yard of his residence in this city.

Miss Ennett was 24 years old and was admired in a wide circle of friends and announcement of her death was received with deep regret. She is survived by one brother, Mr. Z. B. Ennett, of Middle Sound, and four sisters, Miss Henrietta and Beulah Ennett, of this city; Mrs. C. S. Gerald, of Lumberton, and Mrs. J. ... ENDORSES PLAN FOR HOME

Chamber of Commerce Unanimous in Favor of Erection of Large Office Building.—Pledge Moral and Financial Support.

Resolved, That we, citizens of the City of Wilmington, N. C., and also members of the Chamber of Commerce, hereby approve of the idea of erecting an up-to-date office building similar to the plans as outlined by the committee, and pledge our financial and moral support, calling on every citizen to do his or her share, and the president appoint such additional committees as he may deem necessary to further the work.

The resolution set forth above tells in brief the result of the meeting of the Chamber of Commerce yesterday noon, called for the purpose of considering the report of the building committee, composed of Messrs. John VanB. Metts, Thos. H. Wright and Louis D. Hall, appointed some time ago to look into the advisability and feasibility of the organization's erecting a home of its own. The meeting was the largest attended of any held by the organization in two years or more—a significant fact as showing to what extent the business community is interested in the proposition. The resolution was adopted without a dissenting vote and it seemed to be the unanimous opinion of the body that the proposition should be pushed to a definite conclusion.

When the meeting had been called to order by President J. A. Taylor, who presided, and the object stated by him, Col. Metts, of the special building committee was asked to make report. Col. Metts stated that the committee had given much time and thought to the proposition and had at last outlined a plan which would at least give the Chamber something to work from. An option, he said, had been secured on the old Seaboard Air Line property on the west side of Front, between Chestnut and Grace streets, considered admirably situated for a building of the kind, for $34,000, and from the estimates secured a handsome eight story building, a sketch of which was shown, could be erected for $128,000, making a total cost of $162,000. The committee proposed to raise the amount by issuing first and second mortgage bonds—60 per cent. of the former, placing with an insurance company, and 40 per cent. of the latter to be taken by local business men. It is estimated that the store rooms, basement and offices in the building would rent for $25,320 a year and the expenses, including taxes, insurance, interest on bonds, etc. would be $18,550 a year, leaving a balance of $6,770 a net income of 4.2 per cent. Assuming that 20 of the 98 offices will be unoccupied, thereby deducting $3,000 from the above, would leave an annual net income from the property of $3,170 or 2 per cent. The amount of the net income would be applied to paying off the bonded indebtedness. Plans have been drawn for the building by an architect recommended by the insurance company which offers to take the first mortgage bonds.

After Col. Metts had made his report, President Taylor spoke at length, heartily endorsing the proposition, declaring that he thought this the opportune time to undertake the erection of a building as the home of the Chamber of Commerce. He was followed by Mr. Thos. H. Wright, of the special committee, who said that he had great faith in Wilmington's future; no town has better natural advantages.

Mr. Wright said that Wilmington is now a bigger and better city than ever before and, therefore, is capable of bigger things and will do the bigger things that are expected of her.

Several time individuals have put thousands of dollars into enterprises with the faith in the city their chief asset," he continued. "In this case no one person is asked to do but a small share. Whereas in the case of an individual (Mr. Heyer, Mr. Garrell and others) the risk was great, while in this case the individual risk will be small. In erecting this building we are not even leading the procession of North Carolina cities. We are only joining the front rank. Charlotte, Raleigh and Greensboro each have sky scrapers, while Columbia has for years had a 12 story building.

"I believe the proposition will succeed. I know the stores will be rented within a week after the plans are exhibited and my opinion is that the offices, with the Chamber of Commerce in it, will be easily filled. The new, modern, good elevator service, the building will attract tenants not now heard of, and again in this respect history will repeat itself.

"The financing presents no new or exceedingly difficult propositions. First, let Wilmington people co-operate—get together, make it a public, popular move—subscribe for the second mortgage bonds, to be paid for in instalments covering a year's time. Then we will borrow the remainder from the Equitable, Metropolitan or some of the big insurance companies which are offering to lend us the money.

Never in my years of real estate experience have I ever faced a proposition that did not present difficulties. This is what makes them interesting. Nothing is perfect, and I can find plenty of arguments to back out—to follow the easy course of least resistance and fail before I try. Shall we do this or shall we work together and succeed?

"The question is right up to the business people and if you feel that you cannot invest in one or more of the second mortgage bonds, then please say so now before we waste any more effort, time and money. Let's show the world that if not big in census figures, we are big in deeds and business and have faith in ourselves and our city.'"

Hon. John D. Bellamy favored the erection of the building and pledged his hearty support, financially as well as morally, but suggested that instead of the plan proposed stock be issued and the Chamber take 51 per cent. and sell the remainding 49 per cent. to others. He did not know whether or not such a building would pay, but was decidedly of the opinion that it should be erected as a matter of civic pride. He also called attention to the need of a large tourist hotel, declaring that he felt certain that it would be a paying investment. People now going to Florida would come to Wilmington, which has equally as good Winter climate. The class of people who would be attracted to the city would bring more money here than two cotton mills, two machine works, etc. Then again Wilmington needs additional industries. Let the Chamber of Commerce building be erected, followed closely with the tourist hotel and then bring more industries here and Wilmington will go forward by leaps and bounds. Mr. Bellamy did not think the people should be discouraged from the census report, but on the contrary feel jubilant that the increase was so great under the circumstances. He had no doubt but that Wilmington would have shown a population of 30,000 had all the suburbs been taken into account. In conclusion, he promised to help along the movement with a substantial subscription.

Mr. Morrison W. Divine gave his hearty endorsement to the proposition and rather favored the suggestion of Mr. Bellamy that stock in the enterprise be issued.

The resolution above was then introduced by Mr. Samuel Bear, Jr., and after it had received a second, Mr. Z. W. Whitehead asked to be heard before the vote was taken. He said that he was in favor of the proposition and did not want to be understood as offering opposition, but he had just been informed that Mr. A. O. Schuster contemplated the erection of a 10 story office building adjoining The Orton Hotel on the north and suggested that the committee have a talk with him with a view of ascertaining what he has in contemplation and perhaps secure quarters for the Chamber in his building, in which event the money would be put in the Chamber building could be used for the erection of a tourist hotel. Mr. Whitehead wanted to know if the committee had talked with Mr. Schuster in regard to his plans for an office building, and Col. Metts replied that he heard only a short time before the meeting that Mr. Schuster contemplated the erection of a large office building. Mr. J. M. Solky said he considered it best that the Chamber ascertain definitely from Mr. Schuster whether he intended to erect the office building before taking action on the resolution proposed, as Mr. Schuster's plans would very likely be materially changed if the Chamber decided to build an office building as proposed. He did not think it would pay to erect two large office buildings at the present inasmuch as a large number of offices in desirable buildings are now vacant. Mr. William Calder offered as an amendment to the resolution that the committee be instructed to confer with Mr. Schuster before appealing to the public for support in the erection of the proposed home for the Chamber.

President Taylor said that the proposition of the Chamber of Commerce was different altogether from that of Mr. Schuster; that in the event Mr. Schuster erected his building and the Chamber leased the upper floor for its use, the commercial body would then be no better off than at present. What the Chamber of Commerce wants is to erect a building, a home of its own, which in time will be paid for out of the revenue derived from rent, and then have an annual working balance with which to further the interests of the city. One main drawback has been the lack of funds. The erection of the building would not only give the Chamber a home, but provide the necessary money to carry forward the work of the organization.

Col. Walker Taylor said that the Chamber of Commerce had no business discussing Mr. Schuster's plans; he would be embarrassed if he knew the Chamber of Commerce was discussing his plans for a building; that if he wanted anything from the Chamber he would be present in person and submit his proposition; that he did not need the Chamber of Commerce to act as his guardian, and that the Chamber should proceed with its plans independent of any building which may be erected by Mr. Schuster. This seemed to be the sentiment of a vast majority of the meeting. Mr. Calder withdrew his amendment and the Chamber unanimously adopted without a dissenting vote.

Mr. H. McA. Rose, district commercial manager of the Southern Bell Telephone Company, referred to the special effort being made by his company at present to build farmers' lines throughout this section, after which the Chamber unanimously adopted the following:

"Whereas, the City of Wilmington is very greatly benefited by the patronage which its merchants enjoy from citizens of New Hanover, Brunswick and Pender counties; and,

"Whereas, the best interests of the citizens of New Hanover, Brunswick and Pender counties, require that they should be in close touch with its cities and towns; and,

"Whereas, it is mutually advantageous that a quick and efficient means of communication should be provided between the residents of the cities and towns and of the county; and,

"Whereas, it is important that New Hanover, Brunswick and Pender counties shall keep pace with other progressive communities by adopting modern methods of communication; and,

"Whereas, the Southern Bell Telephone and Telegraph Company offers a service whereby the citizens of the rural districts can secure telephonic connection with the cities and towns in the counties at very low cost, now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Chamber of Commerce of the City of Wilmington, N. C., hereby recommends to the farmer, the plan for securing farmers' line telephone service, suggested by the Southern Bell Telephone and Telegraph Company as an economical and efficient means of bringing in touch, the cities and towns and the rural communities in the counties of New Hanover, Brunswick and Pender.

"Be it furtner Resolved, That the Chamber of Commerce of the City of Wilmington, N. C., hereby pledges itself, through its members, to co-operate with the citizens of the counties of New Hanover, Brunswick and Pender and the Southern Bell Telephone and Telegraph Company in the development of farmers' lines."

Among those present at the meeting were Messrs. Wm. Calder, H. C. Twining, J. M. Solky, Clayton Giles, Jr., John Plummer, Jr., P. W. Wells, Sam Bear, Dr. Thos. B. Carroll, D. D. Barber, E. A. Metts, James Howard, D. M. Carroll, Dr. J. G. Murphy, W. M. Cumming, A. B. Skelding, H. F. Wilder, J. F. Roache, R. M. Sheppard, G. Harrison, R. C. DeRossett, J. O. Carr, B. O. Stone, J. H. McGeachy, and others.

President Taylor suggested that as Mr. B. G. Worth was one of the oldest members of the organization it would be well for the Chamber of Commerce to attend the funeral services in the afternoon in a body. Upon motion of Mr. Z. W. Whitehead it was decided that the Chamber attend the services in a body.

Typewritten slips asking for an expression of opinion of those present relative to the proposition to build were handed each person present with the request that he fill out the same and hand it in before leaving the building. Seventy-five signed the slips, each favoring the erection of the building, as follows: W. B. Thorpe, Geo. O. Gaylord, J. A. Taylor, W. L. Harlow, F. W. Dick, C. CARD FROM MR. FALES.

Has Further Observations to Make to Chief of Police.

To the Editor of the Morning Star.

Dear Sir:—I would like to express thanks to our "Honorable" Chief of Police, since he is still out on the alert. As you will see, I was arraigned before the Recorder for violation of city ordinances. As one of its valued officers says, "he has cleaned up everything in the Fifth Ward on his beat obstructing the street, except my two stores and one owned by Mr Mintz." He then goes and issues warrants for my two stores, and our Honor taxes me with the costs. As proof of this, I have taken a couple of gentlemen yesterday afternoon right around in the vicinity of my store and find over one score of like violators, but strange to say, the officer could not see but two. If anyone doubts this statement, I will make oath to same. It seems that the chief authorities are after me, sure. I suppose it is because I know too much and haven't any better sense than to criticise. The Chief said, in Mayor MacRae's and my presence, that he was going to carry out this street ordinance without discrimination. Since there are hundreds of places in this city that are more damnable nuisances than a little feed box to accommodate the masses of country people, it seems that the law should be enforced against them. "Well," one friend said to me, "Put the feed box out and write in big letters, 'Blind Tiger,' and that will solve this problem." As we all know, our police force is not hunting this kind of trophy.

Yours very truly,
(Alderman) J. B. FALES.

BIG CARGO CANNED GOODS.

Brought Here by Schooner William H. Davidson—First on Record.

With a miscellaneous cargo of canned goods, the first schooner cargo of its character brought to this port in years, the schooner William H. Davidson, Capt. Mumford, arrived yesterday from Baltimore. The cargo is consigned by Milley Bros., of Baltimore, to Brown Brothers, the well known brokers and contains 10,000 cases of canned fruits and vegetables and other goods, equal to a solid train of 35 cars.

The schooner was docked yesterday at the wharf at the foot of Chestnut street and the work of discharging her cargo was begun immediately. The goods come from Baltimore, which is one of the largest canned goods markets for Southern wholesale purchasers. The cargo is to be distributed among various wholesale merchants along the wharf.

The cargo by the Davidson shows what can be done by taking advantage of the facilities that lie at the door of Wilmington's business men in their water communication. The saving of freight on this cargo was over 50 per cent., and with the magnificent natural advantages that the city possesses, it would seem that it takes only pluck, energy and brains to make use of them for Wilmington to take the place to which she is entitled among the large ports on the Atlantic coast.

Fine for open grates, abse burners and furnaces. Try Gas Coke.

The New York Times and the New York World of the 17th, contain illustrated accounts of imposing ceremonies marking the unveiling by the Daughters of the American Revolution of a monument in Washington Park, commemorating the British victory 134 years ago when the American patriots were overwhelmed by a force of British and Hessians and 3,000 of the Continental troops were sent to crowd New York prisons. The unveiling was made the occasion of quite a military display. Local interest attaches to the unveiling from the fact that two bright former Wilmington boys, Jackson Flanner, Jr., and Stacey VanAmringe Flanner, sons of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Flanner, now of New York, assisted at the unveiling of the monument and their pictures are given in the World. The monument was presented by the Fort Washington Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, of which Mrs. Flanner is a member. Many Wilmington friends will be interested in the incident.

A PRETTY WEDDING IN FAYETTEVILLE, N. C.

Fayetteville, N. C., Nov. 19.—The marriage of Miss Grace McMillan and Mr. James Strange McNeill was solemnized in the First Presbyterian church in this city Thursday evening at 8 o'clock.

The church had been beautifully decorated for the occasion and the ceremony was impressively performed by the Rev. Watson M. Fairly, the bride's pastor, assisted by the Rev. Charles Noyes Tyndall, rector of St. James' Episcopal church, of which the groom is a member.

The wedding, though quiet, was the center of great interest in social circles, in which the bride and groom are both prominent figures, the bride being one of the most popular and attractive girls of the younger social set, while the groom is prominent in both the social and business life of the city.

The bride was attended by her sister and maid of honor, Miss Jessie McMillan, and the groom by his best man and brother, Mr. Robert S. McNeill.

The bridesmaids and groomsmen were Miss Minerva McNeill and Mr. Philip W. Haigh; Miss Elizabeth McNeill and Mr. Robert H. Dye; Miss Mary Fuller Robeson and Mr. Herbert Dunn; Miss Alice McMillan, of Savannah, Ga., and Mr. Charles G. Rose; Miss Lina Haigh and Mr. Allan B. McMillan; Miss Margaret McMillan and Mr. Thomas H. Sutton, Jr.

The bride was superbly gowned in white princess lace, en traine, built over chiffon, and garnitured in crystal trimmings. Her veil was caught with orange blossoms, and she carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses and lilies of the valley.

The maid of honor was lovely in pink flowered chiffon and carried La France roses.

The bridesmaids—a bevy of beautiful girls—wore white net and lace over chiffon and carried shell pink carnations. The groom and his attendants were garbed in the conventional black. The flower bearer, little Miss Frances Green, wore a charming frock of white lace.

After the ceremony the happy young couple left for a Northern tour, after which they will be at home to their many friends in this city.

NATIONAL COUNSELLOR HERE.

Capt. Luther B. Dow, Representing American Association M. M. & P.

Capt. Luther B. Dow, of New York, National counsel of the American Association of Masters, Mates and Pilots, spent Sunday and yesterday in the city and at Southport conferring with the executive committee of Cape Fear Harbor No. 81, A. A. M. M. & P., regarding the case of Capt. John S. Sellers, of the steamer Duplin, whose license was recently suspended by the United States local inspectors, Messrs. Rice and Borden, in connection with the sinking of the steamer several weeks ago up the river. The case was appealed in behalf of Capt. Sellers by Cape Fear Harbor No. 81, through their counsel, Capt. Dow, and without considering the merits of the case, the action of the local inspectors was declared illegal and their findings without foundation, by Supervising Inspector John W. Oast, of Norfolk. The decision of the local inspectors was reversed and they have been so notified.

The National Association of Masters, Mates and Pilots has now through its counsel, Capt. Dow, preferred charges of wrongful action against the local inspectors to the Department of Commerce and Labor at Washington, complaining that Capt. Sellers has been illegally suspended which action was held not only illegal as to proceedure but without basis of fact. The case against the inspectors will be heard in Wilmington at an early date before the proper officials designated by the Department and the interests of the Association will be represented by Capt. Dow.

Sunday Capt. Dow and Capt. A. B. Devlin, National treasurer and member of the executive committee of the National Association, who accompanied him to Wilmington, were guests on the local harbor for a delightful trip to Southport on the steamer Wilmington, where the officials met many of the members residing there. Capt. Devlin left yesterday morning for Charleston, S. C., on official business, and Capt. Dow last evening for his home in New York. Both were delighted with their trip to the city and the fine entertainment give them by Cape Fear Harbor, A. A. M. M. & P., of Wilmington.

Shrewd Fancy Grocers

Push the sale of Blue Ribbon Vanilla and Lemon Extracts, because they are the best made, and are great trade winners.

AN UNUSUAL GUARANTEE.

It is very unusual to guarantee a cooking fat, but your grocer is authorized to make you this unqualified offer—if you do not find Cottolene perfectly satisfactory, he will cheerfully refund your money.

There is a reason why he can do this. Cottolene is purer and more wholesome than lard or other cooking fats; moreover, it is packed in air-tight pails, which keep it fresh indefinitely.

You wouldn't buy so-called "fresh" eggs when you could get "guaranteed fresh" eggs at practically the same price. Why, then, take chances with other cooking fats, when Cottolene is absolutely guaranteed?

Theatrical

"Madame X," a particularly strong drama and presented by exceptionably able and well balanced company, was the attraction at the Academy of Music last night and in the opinion of many theatre-goers, was unquestionably the best production of the kind seen here this season. There was only a fair-sized audience, the show deserving a much larger house.

The story is pathetic and there were exceedingly few in the audience who did not respond to the emotional work of the players. The story centers about a woman who deserts her husband and child while it is yet in its infancy. She goes about with one man and then another and another still, and in the midst of her wide and pathetic experiences she murders one with whom she has been living to prevent him from scuring a large fortune which belongs to her only child. The boy, now a man, appears as her counsel in the sensational case, but she does not become acquainted with the fact that he is her son until brought into open view of him. The father, one of the most pitiable figures of it all, tells the story of his wrecked household. Each of the performers was splendid and altogether it is said to have been one of the most powerful plays presented here this season.

Marry Thanksgiving Attraction

The Academy's attraction for this Thanksgiving Day will indeed be a big and merry one, and this will be glad news to the folks of Wilmington. Of course, being a holiday two performances will be offered, and John W. Vogel's Minstrels, the noted organization now touring the South for the first time, will hold the boards at both matinee and night. It will be a jolly, big show and capacity business is expected at both performances. Seats will go on sale at Plummer's Wednesday morning. The highest price for the matinee will be 75 cents, while the dollar price will be the top for the night performance.

Vogel's handsome and spacious minstrel car, "Florencia," will arrive in the city Tuesday morning. It is said that there is not another car in the world so constructed, roomy and comfortable in every respect, not an inch of space being wasted. Opening off the hallway, and so arranged that it may be thrown into a large room together with the observation end, are Manager Vogel's private state rooms. Aside from the Commingler steam heating equipment, the hot and cold water plumbing, the private wardrobe and the portable center table with toilet combined, is the handsome folding bed and combination dresser, which was at one time the property of the late Edwin Booth, the famous tragedian, and presented to Mr. Vogel, by J. Monteith Jackson, the junior member of the firm of Jackson & Sharp, ship and car builders of Wilmington, Delaware. Next comes the grand saloon which is 24 feet in length and is used during the day by the members of the company as a parlor, and at night is converted into a sleeping compartment. This is fitted with easy chairs, cozy corners, cushions and all other comforts. Then comes the gents' lavatory with hot and cold running water, gun and fishing tackle racks and wardrobe lockers. The entire interior of the car is finished in cherry, mahogany and teek wood, is hand carved throughout, has beveled edge mirrows thoughout and is a picture of comfort which is hard to realize by one who has never visited the minstrel man as he travels at the present time.

The Crystal Palace.

This week the Palace has combined several splendid acts in one show. Mr. Stelling has been a performer with Ringling Bros. circus for some time, and on the ninth of this month he embarked in vaudeville. His services are in demand and the Crystal is fortunate to have obtained them so soon. As to Uncle Josh, he is not only a fine trick "fiddler," but has entirely original jokes that are clean and funny. Hyatt & LeNore played a "Parlor Episode" last night but have an extensive Repetoire, they will change several times during the week, and today appear in "The New Servant." There are always two reels of pictures and for the benefit of those who have seen the play "Polly of the Circus" will be reproduced today.

Joyland.

The feature film at this poular little theatre for today will be "Solving the Bond Theft," a picture of much excitement and thrilling situations; also a big Western feature that will please old and young. Programme changes daily.

At the Bijou Today.

Today's bill at the Bijou theatre will be featured with "Jean Goes Foraging." It tells the story of two people who tried to spend their summer vacation in the open, depicting their adventures and their narrow escape from starvation through the intelligence and love of their dog, Jean. Another story of interest is "In the Golden Harvest Time," drama.

BLOOD TROUBLES

CONSTITUTIONAL INFECTION

Constitutional Blood Poison is the most insidious of all diseases. It begins in an insignificant manner, usually the appearance of a tiny sore being the only outward evidence of its presence. But down in the blood the treacherous infection is at work, and in a short time its chain of symptoms begin to crop out. The mouth and throat ulcerate, skin eruptions break out, sores and ulcers appear on the body, the glands in the groin swell, and sometimes the hair comes out. Mineral medicines cannot cure Constitutional Blood Poison; they only shut the disease up in the system to smoulder and await an opportunity of breaking out afresh. The only possible way to cure the disease is to REMOVE the germs from the blood. S. S. S. goes into the blood, and while removing the infection makes the blood pure, fresh and healthy. This causes a general upbuilding of the entire system, and when S. S. S. has made a cure there is no return of the hideous symptoms. S. S. S. is made entirely of vegetable matter, containing not the least particle of mineral in any form. It is a perfectly safe medicine and a certain cure for blood poison. We have a Home treatment book which we will be glad to send free to all who write and request it, also any medical advice without charge.

DR. STILES ON HOOKWORM

Illustrated Lecture at Boys' Brigade Armory Last Night Heard by Several Hundred—Remarks Were Convincing.

Under the auspices of the North Carolina Sorosis, numbering among its members some of the most prominent and public spirited women of the city who have recently undertaken several things looking to an improvement in the general health of the community, Dr. Chas. W. Stiles, the noted hookworm expert and discoverer of the disease, delivered an illustrated lecture at the Boys' Brigae Armory last night.

With few exceptions every seat in the auditorium was taken and the remarks of Dr. Stiles were listened to with the greatest interest. The stereopticon views only impressed upon those in the audience the great harm that is being done in the South by the hookworm disease.

In the beginning Dr. Stiles said that the South was going contrary to nature's laws in having the two races, the white and the black, side by side. The white man came from Europe with the white man's diseases and the black man came from Africa with the black man's diseases. As a result the diseases are spreading from one race to the other, the negro suffering the greatest. Dr. Stiles then showed the hookworm in its several stages of development, how it gets hold of a person and the great harm it is doing in practically all the Southern States, slide after slide being shown of persons infected with the disease. He also showed the deplorable sanitary conditions as exist in some of the rural districts. Dr. Stiles said that one-third of the school children in North Carolina he had personally examined were infected with the disease and at one college in the State 51 per cent. of the students are infected. The disease exists very largely among the poorer classes of people, although some of better classes are victims. He said that often people attribute the pale, sallow complexion of the mill operatives to the lint and dust from the cotton, but he said that this was wide of the true cause, which is hookworm disease, not contracted at the mills, but carried there from the farms. In at least one instance pointed out by him work in cotton mills had reduced the percentage of hookworm disease. That is to say, that an examination among the first generation of the operatives in a mill as compared with a similar examination of second generation operatives in another mill, showed that there was far less of the disease at the latter mill. He argued that if the cotton mills were the cause then the percentage would be greater in the mill where the parents of the present operativs worked. On the contrary, the condition was shown to have improved. Therefore, Dr. Stiles has come to the conclusion that the cotton mills are doing in this respect a great good.

During the day Dr. Stiles visited the city graded schools. While he did not make a very thorough examination he saw a number of children who are infected with hookworm disease and declared, in speaking of the assistance given by the dental association in examining the mouths of the children, that it would certainly be a good thing if a medical examination of the pupils were made. The condition of the health of the children in the High School appeared to be very much better than in the grammar schools. Dr. Stiles did not see any severe cases of infection in either of the schools, but he saw enough to warrant him in saying that many of the children should be placed under the care of a physician.

The lecture of Dr. Stiles, emphasized by the stereopticon views, which will leave an impression upon the minds of all the audience, was enlightening and convincing. It was given in language that a child could comprehend and will no doubt do much good.

SIX MONTHS FOR LARCENY.

John Hudson, Colored, Convicted of Stealing Bag of Money.

John Hudson, colored, was arraigned in the Recorder's court yesterday on the charge of stealing $18 in money from the store of E. B. Miller, colored, corner of Nixon street and Love's Alley, late Saturday night. Miller had placed the day's receipts, $18, in a bag in the cash drawer and was seated in a rear room when he was startled by a noise in the front of the building. Upon investigation he found that the contents of the money drawer had been taken. He suspected Hudson and summoned the police. A warrant was issued for Hudson and he was arrested about 3 o'clock Sunay morning. The money bag, containing $18, alleged to have been taken from the store, was found in his possession. Miller later identified the money bag as belonging to him. The Recorder found Hudson guilty and sentenced him to six months on the roads. His attorney, Geo. L. Peschau, took an appeal to Superior Court.

Alderman J. B. Fales and Mr. Ed. Russ were before the court on the charge of violating the obstruction ordinance in utilizing more than 30 inches of the sidewalk adjacent their places of business. Both were found guilty and assessed the cost. Alderman Fales took an appeal to Superior court. Wm. J. Bellamy, Esq., appeared for him.

Wm. Harrison and Carrie Stewart, colored, charged with an affray were required to pay $5 each and costs.

FINANCIAL and COMMERCIAL

A SHARP ADVANCE IN COTTON

Affect of the Census Report on the Market Yesterday—Net Gain of 29 to 38 Points During the Day.

New York, Nov. 21.—There was a jump of nearly $2 per bale in the price of cotton in the New York future market this morning following the report of the Census Bureau showing less cotton ginned to November 14th than had been anticipated and while the market later was nervous and irregular as a result of heavy realizing, the close was firm at a net gain of 29 to 38 points for the day.

The opening was steady at an advance of 23 to 41 points with May cotton selling at 14.96 on or shortly after the call as a call of excited covering and fresh buying for long account Liverpool. Liverpool cables had been relatively firm earlier with prices reporting a big trade demand from the continent and just before the opening here the census report aws published showing 8,764,153 bales ginned to November 14th when the trade had been looking for about 9,000,000 bales on the average. Realizing was very heavy at the initial advance and there was a good deal of selling by certain large spot interests, under which prices gradually worked off, but houses with Western, Southern and European connections were big buyers, and after a reaction of from 9 to 13 points, the market firmer up again in the late trading on covering by early sellers and a renewal of bull support.

It seemed that the census figures were more effective in swinging in sentiment in the direction of small crop estimates for the reason that a prominent traveling expert issued a report estimating the yield at only 10,945,000 bales exclusive of linters, which may add another 350,000 bales to the commercial crop. At any rate the day's operations seemed to reflect increased confidence in estimates of under 11 3-4 million bales and towards the close there seemed to be more outside buying with last prices only a shade off from the top. Southern spot markets officially reported early were unchanged to 3-16c. higher. The census reports indicated a considerably heavier ginning between November 1st and 14th this year than last, but recent private reports from the South have tended to confirm the claims of bullish estimaters that an unusually large percentage of the crop had been ginned to November 14th.

Receipts at the ports today 60,461 bales, against 62,376 last week and 32,842 last year. For the week 375,000 bales against 414,823 last week and 209,576 last year.

Today's receipts at New Orleans 11,935 bales against 6,412 last year.

Spot cotton closed quiet 25 points higher; middling uplands 14.80; middling gulf 15.05; no sales.

Futures opened and closed firm.

MONEY MARKET THE FEATURE

Relaxation in Money Rates on the Market—Decided Shrinkage in Volume of Transactions. Steel Outlook.

New York, Nov. 21.—Relaxation in money rates was the feature of the day's financial markets. Prices of securities failed to benefit from this development. There was a decided shrinkage in the volume of the transactions and the tone of the speculation was heavy and sagging. The disposition to realize profits on previous purchases was partly responsible for this contradictory response to a favorable development.

Financial commentators are inclined to criticise the manner of operating of the speculative forces most largely responsible for the present market movement. The tone of these criticisms seemed to have some enect on the operations, thus reducing the volume of the market or of the dealings in United States Steel, Union Pacific and Reading, in which stocks those operations center almost entirely. Weakness became more positive in proportion as the pressure to sell United States Steel increased.

The extremely favorable bank statement published here on Saturday had the effect of increasing the disposition of lenders to put out funds. The deparments of the money market which got most advantage from those offerings, however, were those in which the least demand exists. The demand for mercantile paper continues to lag.

Discount rates receded in London, Paris and Berlin, in common with the easing money market in New York.

Foreigners were disposed, nevertheless, to sell bank stocks to New York. The burden of this selling was an important factor in carrying prices downward.

Sentiment over the steel trade outlook was depressed and it was believed that the period for revival would have to be sent forward into next year.

Bonds were heavy. Total sales par value $2,116,000. United States bonds were unchanged on call. Total sales stocks 313,600 shares.

GINNERS' REPORT FEATURE.

Prices Advance Sharply in Cotton Market—North Carolina Crop.

(Special Star Telegram.)

New York, Nov. 21.—The ginners' report of 8,764,000 came as a fillip to the market at the opening and prices advanced sharply on this and further adverse reports from the South. The figures are to the 14th, (last year 8,113,000), and for the five years the average ginned to that date is 71.4 per cent. Alabama, Texas, Arkansas and North Carolina exceed last year, other States fall behind. Liverpool responded well to the report, the advance here of 24 to 40 points was well held during the day. With large buying credited to the West and extensive covering of shorts. Alabama private reports say that only 10 per cent. is not ginned and from elsewhere the ginning is said to be about over.

The bulls believe that about two millions only are yet to come in; the bears that the amount from October 31st, 1,418,000 must be construed differently. General buying is lacking the shorts being supplied by the bulls. Southern spot markets are higher, and Manchester is good. The trade is following the advance gingerly, prepared for a sharp reaction.

ents and preserve neutrality had asked for permission to send troops wherever he thought there might be danger to American interests. This request was granted and the fact that troops were almost immediately ordered to the border is taken by officials here as evidence that the situation is Mexico is acute.

Though no alarming messages have reached the State Department or the War Department tonight, nothing has been left undone to afford protection should there be alarming developments.

Major General Wood, chief of staff of the army, said that the sending of troops to the border from Fort Sam Houston was a precautionary measure.

Hard to Trace Movement.

Mexico City, November 21.—It is difficult to get authentic news from the north, the scene of the disturbances at the American embassy, it was stated that no telegrams came today from consuls there and the newspapers here have also been unable to secure anything.

The war minister, tonight, in explaining why troops were hurriedly sent to Orizaba in the State of Vera Cruz, said it was feared that the rebels might dynamite the railroad bridges.

The secret service has been extremely active. In the last few days, it is said, 200 arrests of agitators has been made here.

Town in Hands of Rebels.

Mexico City, Nov. 21.—Gomez Palcio, a town of 7,000 inhabitants and the junction point of the railroad near Torreon, is said here tonight to be in the hands of revolutionists. Railroad and telegraphic communication was cut off and this lends color to the report.

Fierce fighting occurred today at Durango, Torreon, Parral and Gomez Palacio, the latter town falling into the hands of the rebels. Three hundred of the Federal troops at Gomez Palacio are said to have gone over to the insurgents who have now turned their attention to attacking the loyal forces at Torreon. The fighting began at Durango at 4 o'clock this afternoon and an hour later all the wires were cut. It is reported on good authority that 25 persons have been killed at Zacatecas. The government troops, it is also reported, quelled the uprising there and are in control tonight. The wires north of Monterey have been cut and no reports are obtainable from beyond that point. It is believed that the insurgents are responsible for the cutting of communication.

Troops on the Move.

San Antonio, Texas, Nov. 21—Troop K., Third U. S. Cavalry, Capt. Arthur Thay in command, left here tonight on a special train for Del Rio. The troop is equipped for a stay of a month in the field. It is understood that other troops will be sent from Fort Sam Houston within a day or two to do duty along the Mexican border.

Rebels Enlist Indians.

El Paso, Texas, Nov. 21.—A report reached here from Gananea, Mexico, tonight, that revolutionists are enlisting the hostile Yaqui Indians for service against the Mexican government. It is said that 1,000 Yaqui warriors will take the field if actual war breaks out.

Wholesale smuggling of arms and ammunition across the border near Naco, Ariz., is said to be in progress. All travelers are rigidly searched and many are turned back. Both American and Mexican border officers have received instructions from their governments to take extra precautions against smuggling.

Situation Very Grave.

El Paso, Texas, Nov. 21.—Government officers at Chihuahua, Mexico, are searching the city for ammunition and are dealing rigorously with persons found with explosives in their possession, according to reports reaching the border tonight. All American women have been ordered to keep off the streets of Chihuahua, the police stating that they could not guarantee to protect them from insult.

A strong guard is maintained over the Banco Minero and business is partly suspended.

Americans arriving here assert that the situation in Chihuahua is grave and is constantly becoming more strained. Many families are coming to the border to await the return of settled conditions.

Advices to Washington.

Washington, Nov. 21.—Private cipher dispatches received here tonight by persons in touch with the operations of Francisco I. Madero, the revolutionist leader, in Mexico, state that Torreon and Gomez Placios, two railroad points, are in the hands of the revolutionists and that the fall of Chihuahua, capital of the State of that name and Puebla, is expected tomorrow, hard fighting having occurred at both those places today.

Agents of the Madero forces are said to be on their way to Washington to look after revolutionist interests here.

vice itself had been developed by unscrupulous men who, throught the grossest forms of misrepresentation, were stealing from the people millions of dollars annually. These fraudulent operations have not only swindled thousands of innocent investors, but have created a lack of confidence in legitimate business enterprises. It is therefore as important to the business community to have these frauds stopped as it is to the people whose losse are directly traceable to them."

The Postmaster General declares in conclusion that "the results already accomplished by the department represent only the beginning. The work of investigation and prosecution will proceed with all possible vigor until the swindling of the people through the use of the mails is brought to an end."

The specific charge against Vaughan set forth in the complaint of William B. Robinson, postal inspector, is that only June 4, 1910, he devised a scheme to defraud Walter N. Altman, of 2001 Clay street, Topeka, Kan., "and divers other persons" by fraudulent use of the mails. It is alleged he falsely represented that the Continental Wireless was to operate and control other companies, and would be in a position to obtain immediate revenues.

Carter R. Keene, postal inspector, told the story of the Continental Wireless. The company was organized, he said in Arizona, on October 1, 1909, with a capital stock of $5,000,000, but did not begin operations on a large scale until May of this year. It obtained control of the Collins Wireless Telephone Company, the Pacific Wireless Telegraph Company, the Clark Wireless Telegraph and Telephone Company and the Massie Wireless Telegraph Company. The Columbia Finance Corporation was organized to market the stock, and an ambitious selling campaign was carried all over the country. In spite of the great amount of business done, Continental Wireless today has no bank accounts, he said, that the inspectors have been able to find, and investigation has shown no trace of where the money realized has gone.

The Collins Wireless Company was organized in the District of Columbia with a capitalization of $1,000,000. The capital stock of the Clark Company was $25,000,000; that of the Pacific $10,000,000 and that of the Massie $30,000. The purpose of the consolidation, as announced in a booklet issued by the Continental Wireless was to give the company a wide field of operation and to give to investors an assured investment in a "conservatively capitalized corporation."

BOLD NORFOLK ROBBERY.

Bound Doctor Hand and Foot and Carried Away Money.

Norfolk, Va., Nov. 21.—A bold daylight robbery occurred in the business centre of this city today when two young men entered the office of Dr. L. B. Firey and at the point of a pistol bound him hand and foot to a chair. After taking all of the money in the office the men hastened away, one of them shouting "Farewell, Doc, better keep quiet about it."

Dr. Firey managed to free himself and was seen in pursuit. On a street car he saw a man whom he claimed to recognize as one of those who committed the robbery and he was captured. The accused gave his name as George Cunningham, of New York, and the police say he has confessed. The second rober was not caught.

The Vortex Hot Blast

The Hot Blast Heater With Two Tubes.

The top hot blast draft is supplied to the fuel body in a blast of whirling air. This highly heated air fans a flame as it mixes with the rising gases and causes a clean combustion of the cheapest fuel.

The large sensitive steel radiating surface makes it a quick heater. The all-steel body requires less blacking and other labor in keeping it clean.

No fire pot exposed to burn red and look bad after the first few fires.
